FORWARD
1969

A black and white photograph of a coastal scene. The foreground shows dark, choppy water with white foam from breaking waves. In the middle ground, the ocean stretches to the horizon. The sky is filled with several birds in flight, their dark silhouettes contrasting against the lighter sky. The overall mood is dramatic and dynamic.

We dedicate Forward '69 to Bro. Albert, our Diamond Jubilarian.

BROTHER ALBERT BLETZACKER, S. M.

REFLECTIONS OF 75 YEARS.

When renewing my vows today for the 75th time, I could not help recalling my leaving home in Alsace in 1890 to go to France to join the Society of Mary. Four years later, I had the unique privilege and happiness of pronouncing for the first time the holy vows that I renewed for the 75th time today.

In 1899, I left France for Japan with five other fellow Brothers, of which group I am the only one still living. With a new Country, new customs, and new languages to study: Japanese and English, I found it hard and discouraging in the beginning.

For transportation the only car in the city was the jinrikisha or pousse-pousse. There were no tram-cars. And the railroad from Tokyo to Nagasaki began only in 1899.

The Society of Mary had schools only in Tokyo and Nagasaki. Two years later the Society founded two new schools namely, St. Joseph College in Yokohama for the foreign boys, and the Meisei in Osaka for Japanese Students.

I stayed 41 years in Nagasaki where I taught many students whose sons were also students of mine. During the Second World War I was sent to St. Joseph College where I have been from 1941 till Our Good Lord will call me to His Country and forever.

Graduating Class of 1969
St. Joseph College
Yokohama, Japan

To The Class of '69:

It is with pleasure that I congratulate you on your graduation from St. Joseph College.

Congratulations are in order for it is with pride that I have been with you for the four years of study at St. Joseph College. During these years you have manifested:

Serious study with a keen intellectual challenge.

An awareness of your responsibility to yourselves, your schoolmates, to your faculty and to your parents.

An awareness to your development through the activities of the school and community.

Your keen perception and participation in the projects of the Yokohama community through its fund drives and social needs.

You have received an excellent foundation from your parents and teachers. Always carry these true principles with dignity and your life will be a happy one.

Your Faculty and Fellow-Students thank you for your true example of the SJC Family Spirit.

May Christ be ever present in your future life and may our Blessed Mother guide you always as she guided her Son.

Hold to your school motto "FORWARD WITH FAITH & FORTITUDE."

Sincerely yours,

Bro. John O'Donnell, S.M.

FATHER FRANCIS GERBER, S.M.

RELIGIOUS SUPERIOR OF THE SAINT JOSEPH MARIANIST COMMUNITY

Father Francis Gerber, the Director of St. Joseph College and the Superior of its Religious Community, was born in 1914 at Cleveland, Ohio. He had the happiness of professing his first vows in the Society of Mary in 1933. Nine years later he was ordained a priest while in attendance at the Benedictine Seminary of St. Meinrad, Indiana. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1936 from the University of Dayton and in 1948, his Master of Arts degree from Western Reserve University. In the same year Father Gerber was given his coveted Obedience to Japan where he has taught at St. Joseph College until the present, except for one year of language study in Tokyo and three years of sick leave.

Father's original intentions were to be a Jesuit Priest and to serve in China; in the end, however, it was Our Lady Who set his course. In consequence, he claims himself to be the happiest person in the world as a Marianist Priest serving in the Church's front line mission in Japan.

S.J.C. for Father Gerber is a "Paradise" of Japan principally because of the staunch loyalty and generous support of its faculties, students, parents, alumni, and friends.

Lastly, in his estimation, "Japan is a wonderful Country and its people still more wonderful."

Bro. James Dods, S.M.

Brother James, from the lovely isles of Hawaii, first arrived at S.J.C. in the year 1964. Previously, he had taught in such places as Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Bro. James, our Vice-Principal, is also Homeroom Teacher of the Senior Class and Sodality Moderator. Bro. Dods may often be seen with a novel in his hands, for he is also teacher of the pilot co-educational English Seminar Class.

When asked his opinion of S.J.C. and Japan, Bro. James replied that they were "far beyond my expectations". He also gave a message to the student body:

"(In the words of a chaplain I know), Go in peace, and make the world a better place because of your presence in it."

Bro. Joseph Wasy, S.M.

Brother Joseph hails from the native city of Babe Ruth: Baltimore, Maryland. He attended St. James Grade School and graduated in 1932. After four years at Marianist Preparatory High School, Beacon, New York, he entered the Noviate of the Brothers of Mary in Dayton, Ohio and professed his first vows in 1937. In 1943, he professed his final vows, thus consecrating his entire life to the Holy Mother of God through his vow of stability. Brother Joseph celebrated his Silver Jubilee of Religious Profession in 1962 at St. Joseph College, Yokohama.

Over some 28 years, Bro. Wasy has been associated with "sports" as extra-curricular activities, especially basketball. Sports has been his interest and hobby over the years. Even Bro. Joseph's favorite saying reflects his love of athletics:

"Winners never quit, and quitters never win."

Bro. Patrick McMahon, S.M.

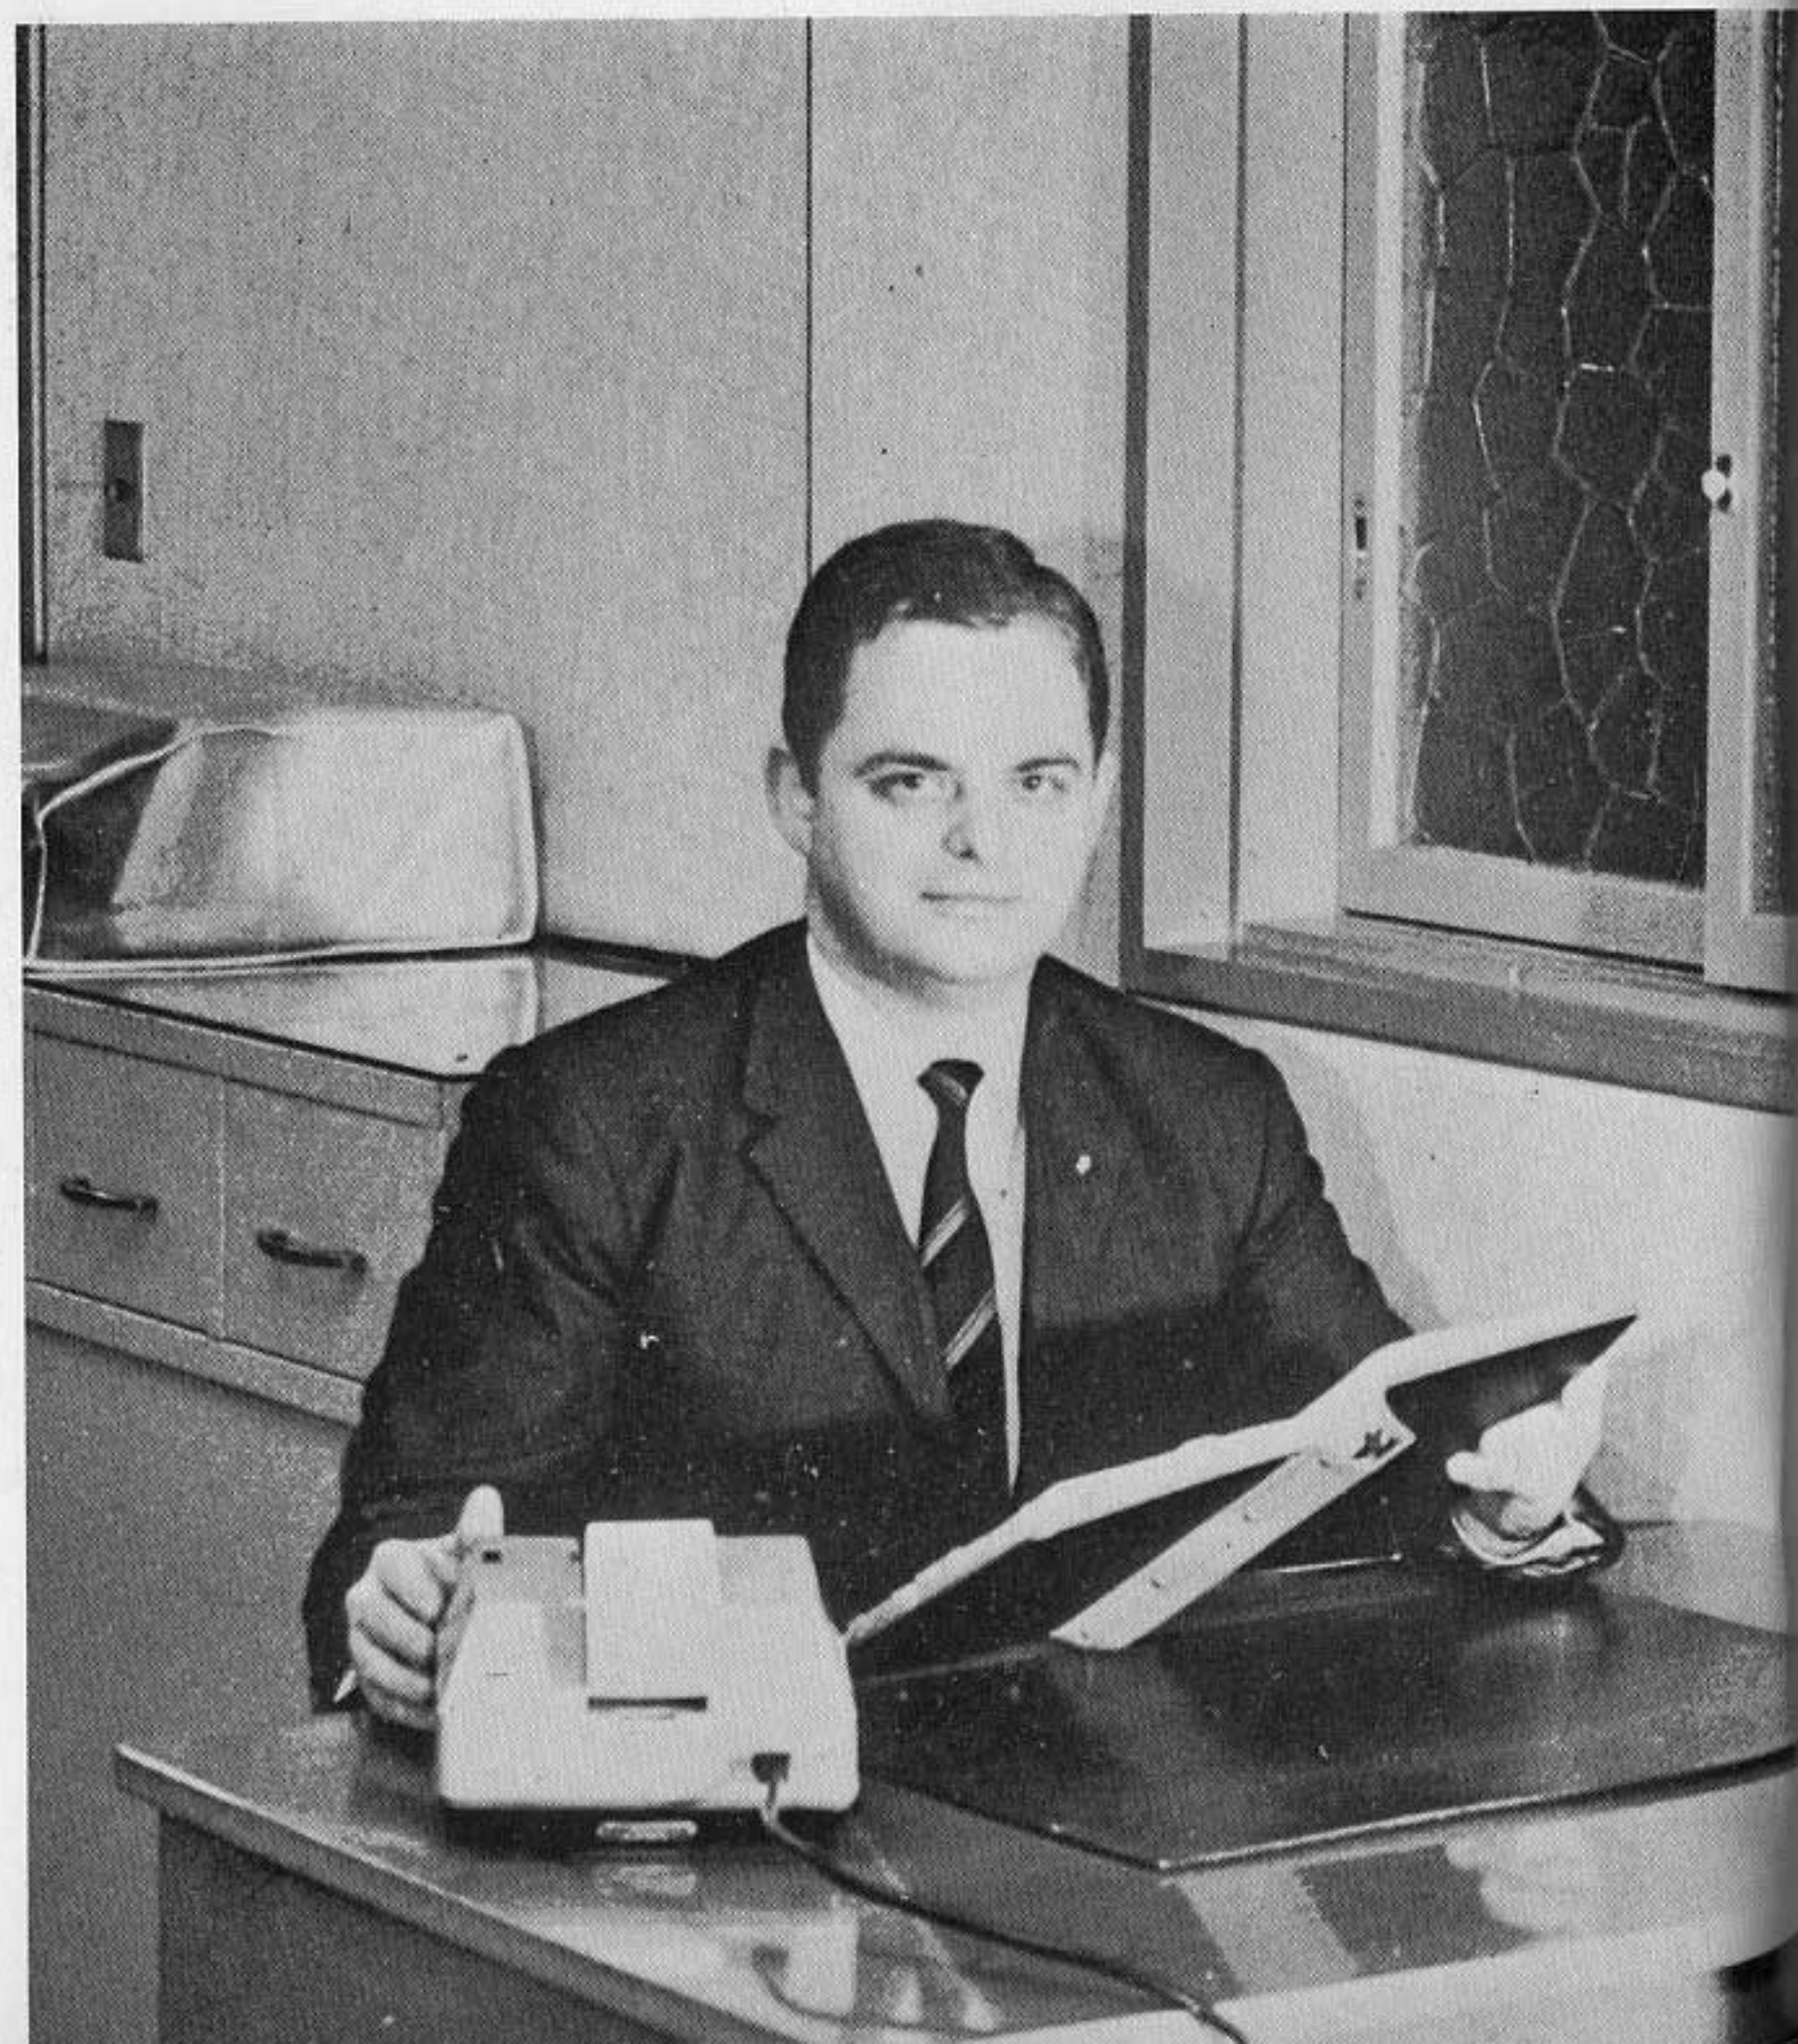

Brother Patrick, our school treasurer, comes from the Golden State of California. Born in San Francisco, he spent most of his early life in California, and indeed graduated from St. Mary's College in Moraga. It was while attending this college that Bro. Patrick entered the Society of Mary.

At present, in addition to being school treasurer, Bro. McMahon is also Homeroom Teacher of Grade Nine, and Moderator of the Mother's Club.

Among his interests, Bro. Patrick lists driving and listening to classical and popular music. An ardent motorist, he is the unofficial "school driver", and can frequently be seen pulling in or out of the garage.

When asked his opinion of St. Joseph College, Bro. Patrick replied, "It is a harmonious family where many students from many lands can work and play together." He also included a message to the Class of '69:

"May the Graduates fulfill the vocation of life and be real men of S.J.C."

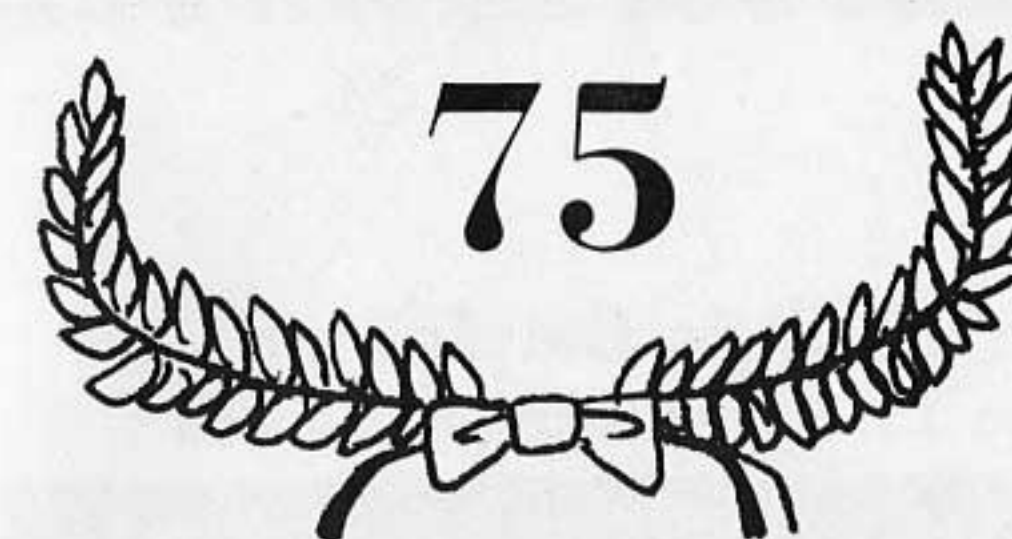

Bro. Charles Loebig, S.M.

Brother Charles comes from the Steel City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. In 1936, he left Pittsburgh to begin the work of formation as a Brother in the Society of Mary first in Beacon, New York, and then in Dayton, Ohio.

After attaining a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from the University of Dayton in 1944, Bro. Charles began his teaching career. His field of work includes elementary education for the most part, and also some specialization in music and the language arts.

Interests of Bro. Charles are many and varied, with particular emphasis on young people and music of all kinds. At present, Bro. Loebig plans to remain in Japan as long as he may, and to work in the field of education. Bro. Charles considers S.J.C. as "a school of the best boys I've ever had the opportunity to meet".

The SENIOR CLASS of 1969, being of sound mind and body, does hereby give, devise, and bequeath to its successors forever the following trusts:

Eddie bequeaths his accounting grades to Jun Matsuno: his manual on "How To Get By Without Studying" to all.

Toshimasa leaves his passion and love of liberty to all willing successors.

Pietro leaves all his possessions to those who want nothing.

Ko Chi divides his hearing aid among the following Juniors: 1/3 to M. Zalewski; 1/3 to S. Bettencourt; and 1/3 to W. Hill.

Thomas bequeaths his shovel to "dig" Bill Evans to George Suwa, and his love of 4-beat swing to the members of his trio.

Melvin leaves his baseball spirit to haunt SJC.

Dirk liberally bestows all his dull razor blades to all his growing brothers, and also to Junior Charlie Johnson.

Tomio, in a sudden burst of energy, bequeaths his laziness to the school trash-can.

Joseph quietly leaves his silence to Billy Hill.

George presents his "square glasses" to S. Bettencourt for his encouraging compliment, "George, I dig those glasses!" Generous George also awards his height to Junior Charles Leong.

Cheuk, in a spring-cleaning mood, leaves his egg-beater to Hwong Yu; his rotten old developer to Leroy Lockwood; and his broken cable release to Reginaldo Da Silva.

Bob, with a double bequest, donates his slimness to Yu Kuo Chen and his patience to all quick-tempered students.

Freddy entrusts all his scientific and creative ability to Richard Emery (who should be able to find a place for it).

Kenny donates his priceless thinning medicine to all plump students.

James confers upon Haruyasu Shinoda all unpaid bills of the Interact Club.

Wilbur leaves nothing to nobody.

Satchi distributes his guitar techniques to the following: 1/4 cup to Zal; 1/4 cup to Lloyd; and lastly 1/2 cup to Cyril of Zaimokuza. Again, Satchi bequeaths his Cheater-five and Hang-ten surfing powers to Tierney and Uotila, two outstanding Chigasaki gremmies.

Francisco sells his Eau de Cologne to Oscar Sanchez for nothing; donates his Sloan's Liniment to Seibo Tie; and lastly bequeaths his weight to Byron Hata.

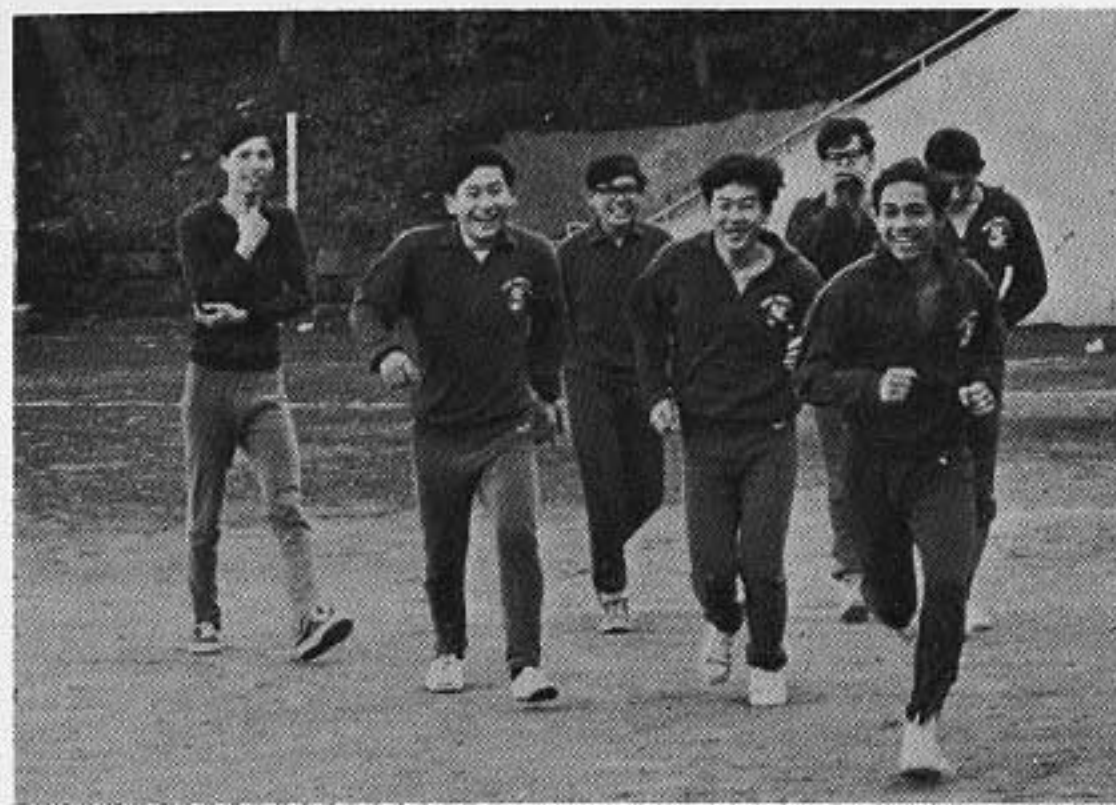

Jinmi bestows his roughness to John Miyahara; his ski shoes to Sien.

Ethan leaves his invaluable punch card to Hwong Yu.

James Tung presents his $20 sunglasses to Sien (Unfortunately, they were lost during a ski trip).

Lewis kindly wishes his quietness to John Yamazaki.

Obviously, Adam leaves his spiked shoes to all talented baseball players.

Let's blow our noses together!

He is going to take me home.

Boing

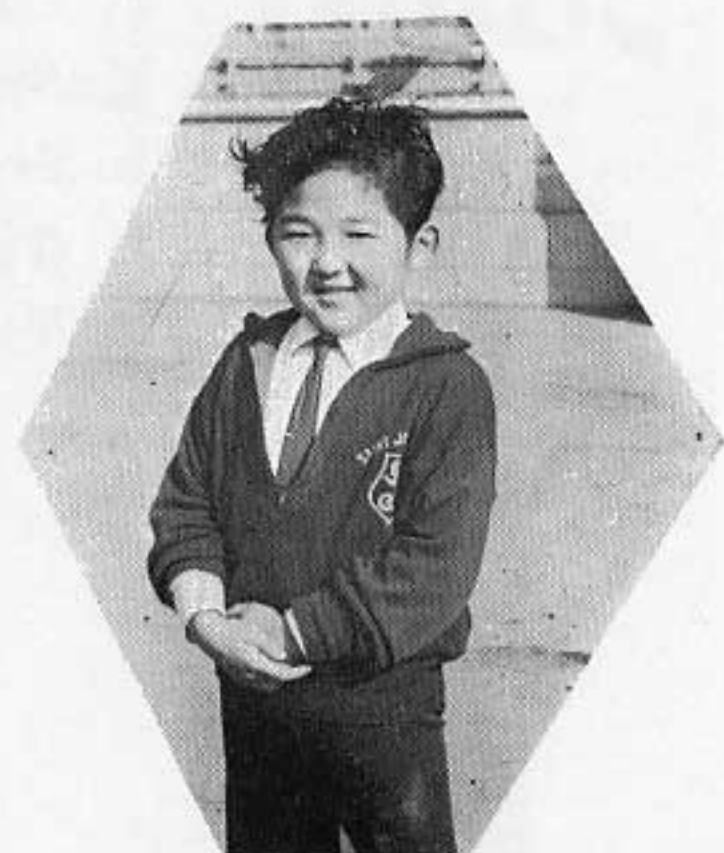

Sad...

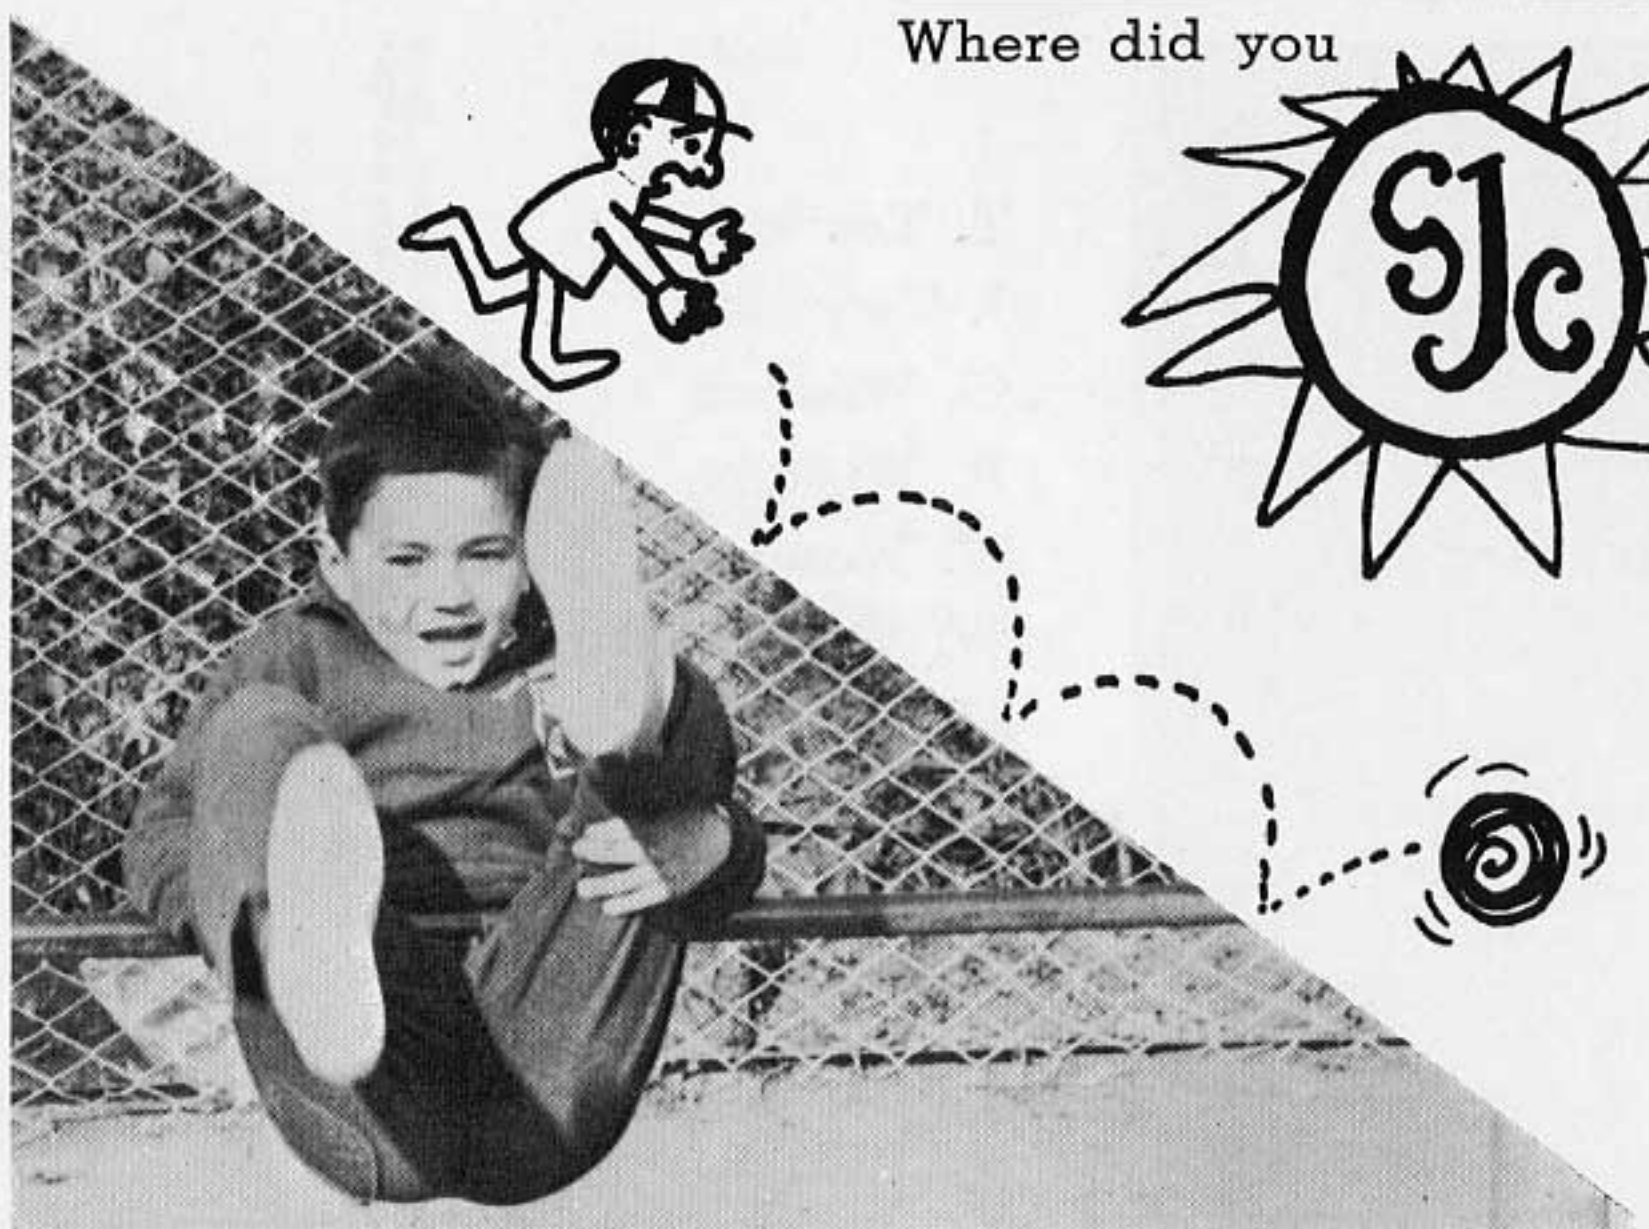

Happy.

Where did you get that cigar?

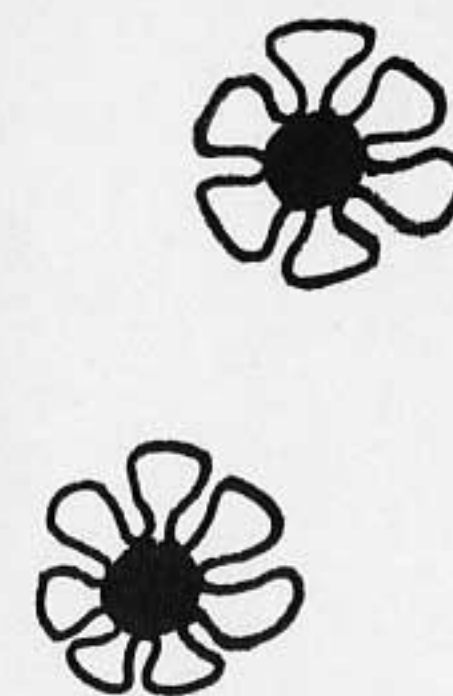

SJC gentleman

Settling a grudge?

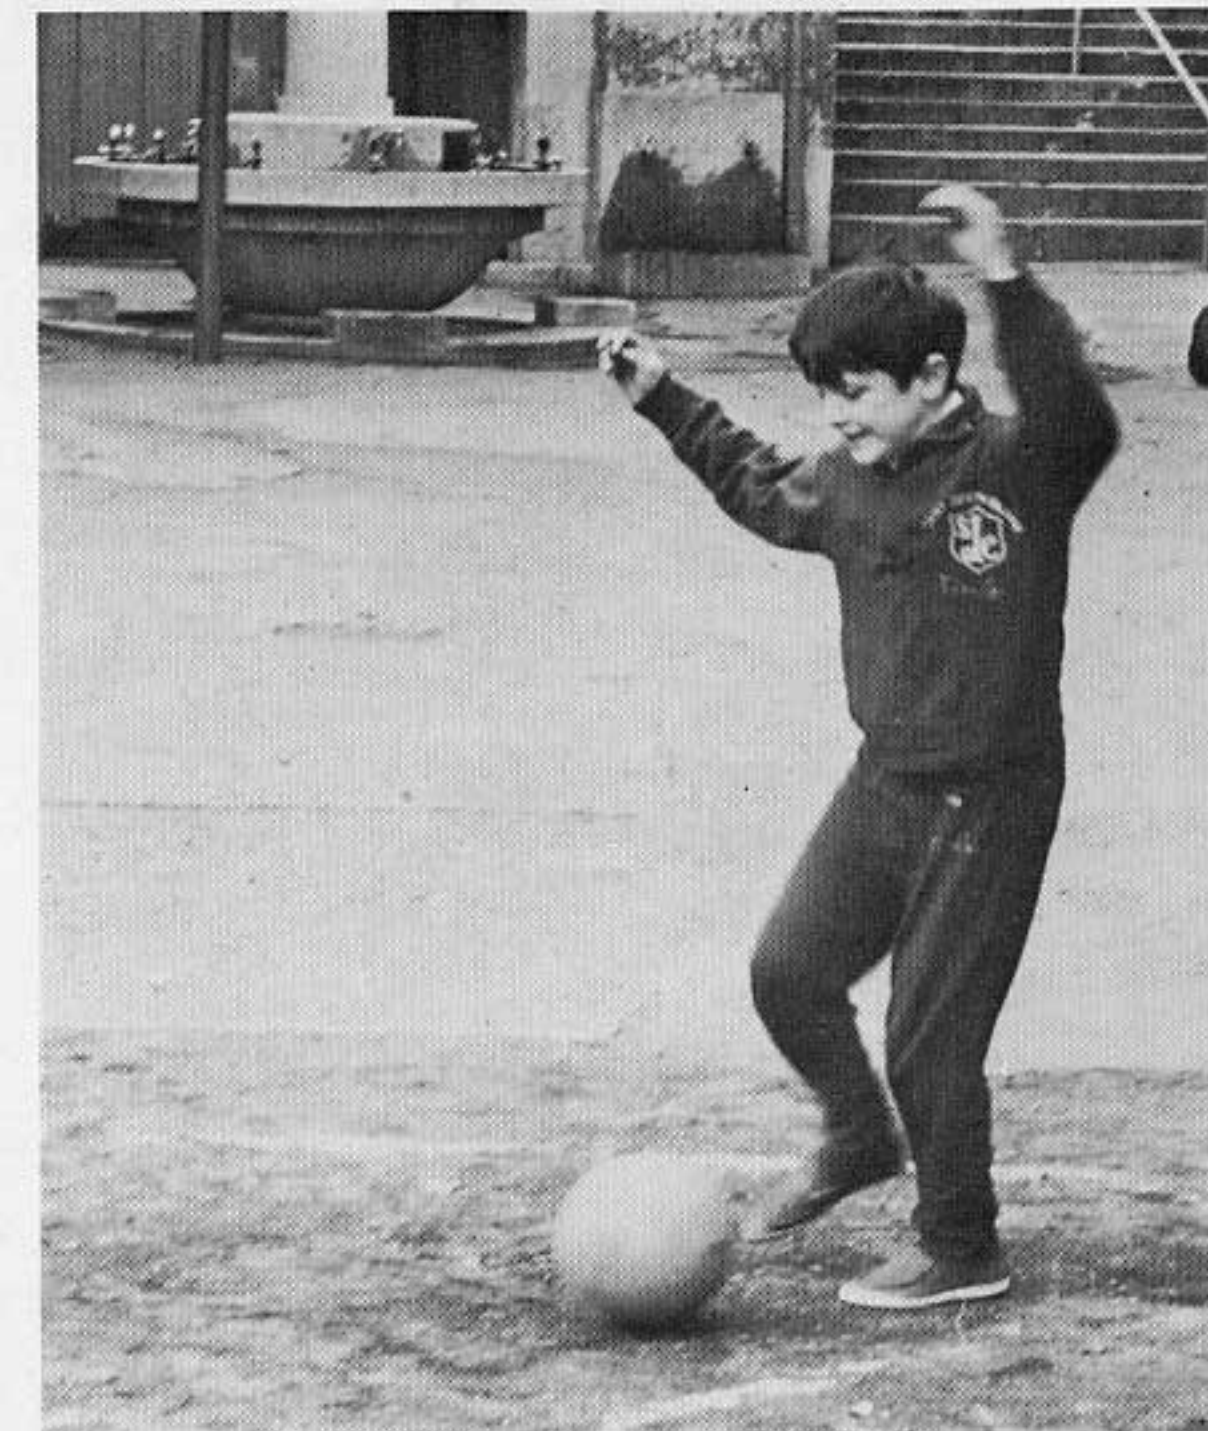

Three strikes for turning around.

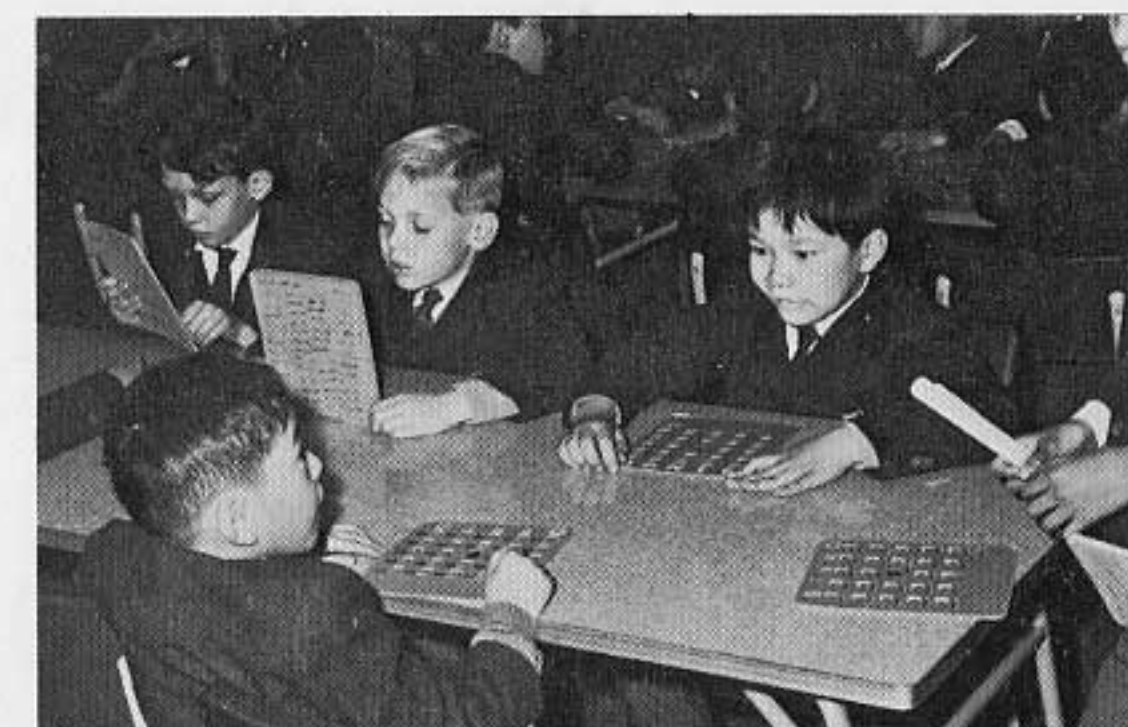

There! That's the bug.

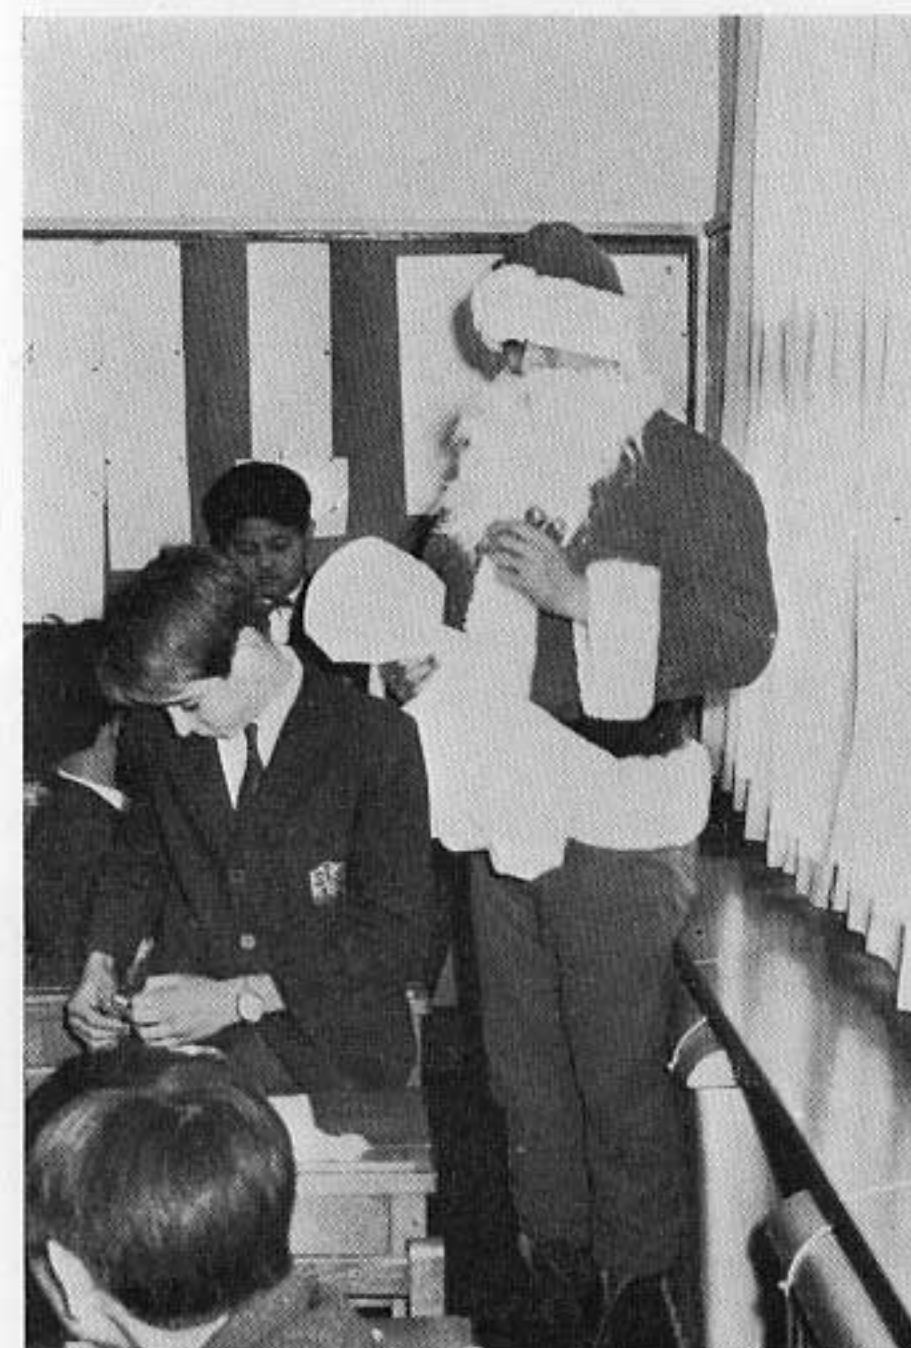

Whew! That was hot.

Ole!

One more to go.

You owe me 50 yen for this candy.

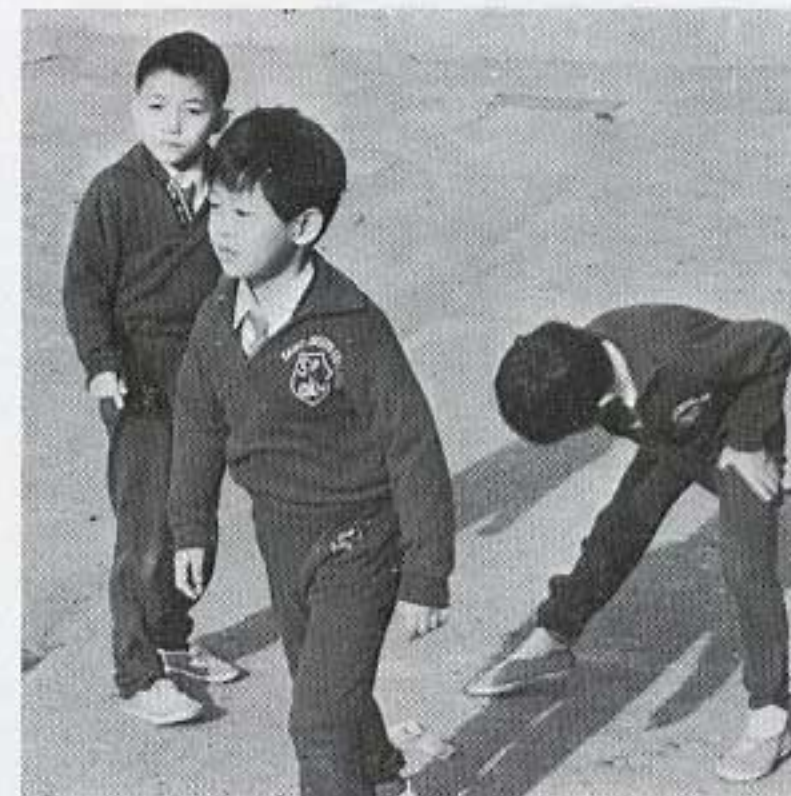

Don't rip your pants!

Buried alive!

Life thru the camera eye.

I quit!

The world upside down.

Two heads of the ax.

EVERYMAN

The Senior English Class, under the supervision of Mr. Larry Hackett, presented the morality play "Everyman" on December 18, 1968 at the school auditorium. Costumes were kindly provided by Mr. Peter Mann, professor at the University of Foreign Languages in Tokyo.

The play, performed before SJC and St. Maur's students, met with general approval. Indeed, comment was so favorable that "Everyman" was performed before the public on January 24, 1969.

MEMORABLE EVENTS 1968-'69

Brother Albert, still cheerful and active at 94, attends his Jubilee Mass (Bottom, far right). Ordinarily, Bro. Albert sells stationery at his store on the second floor of the Grade School building. He passes his free time either in reading and meditating or in painting. Congratulations to our Diamond Jubilarian on his seventy-fifth anniversary!

Brother Albert Bletzacker, S.M. (center) was honored on his Diamond Jubilee by a Jubilee Dinner and Mass. Attending this dinner were the Very Rev. Paul Hoffer, Superior General of the Society of Mary; His Excellency the Most Reverend Bruno Wustenburg, Apostolic Pro-Nuncio to Japan; and the Bishops of the Yokohama, Fukuoka, and Oita Dioceses.

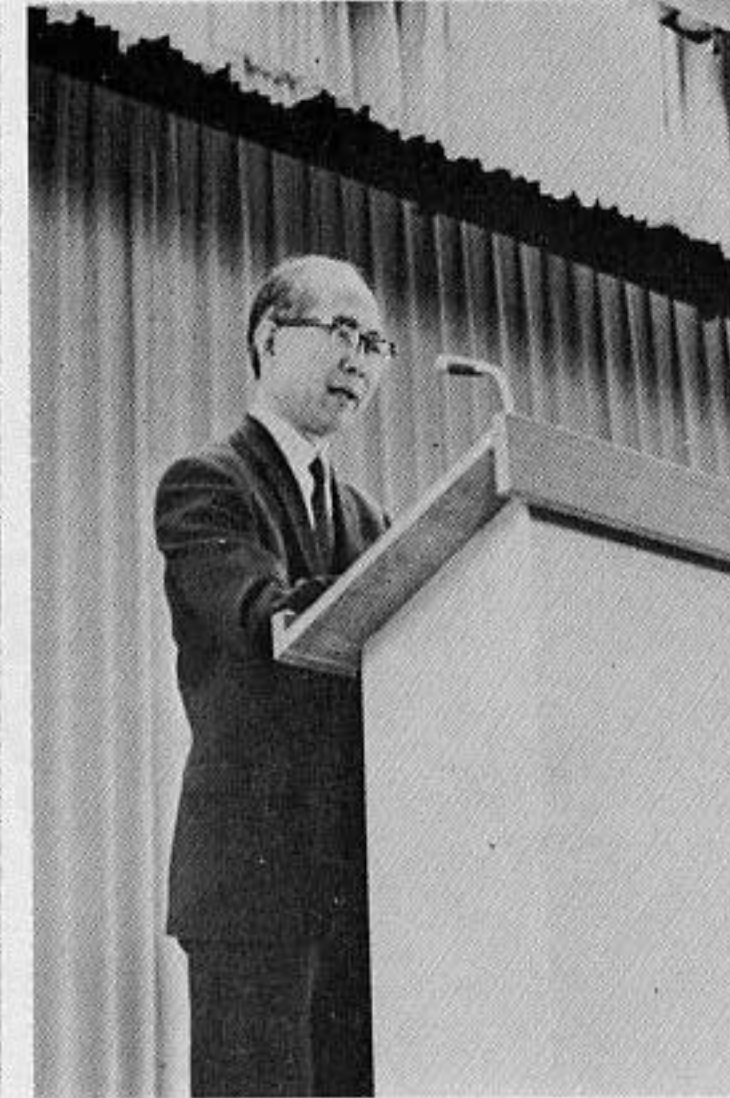

Other guests included Mr. Shirama of the National Diet of Japan, and Dr. Akaishi, founder of the Tokyo Byoin in Kawasaki, both former students of Bro. Albert.

Heroin...

Pepperdine...

Student Riots.

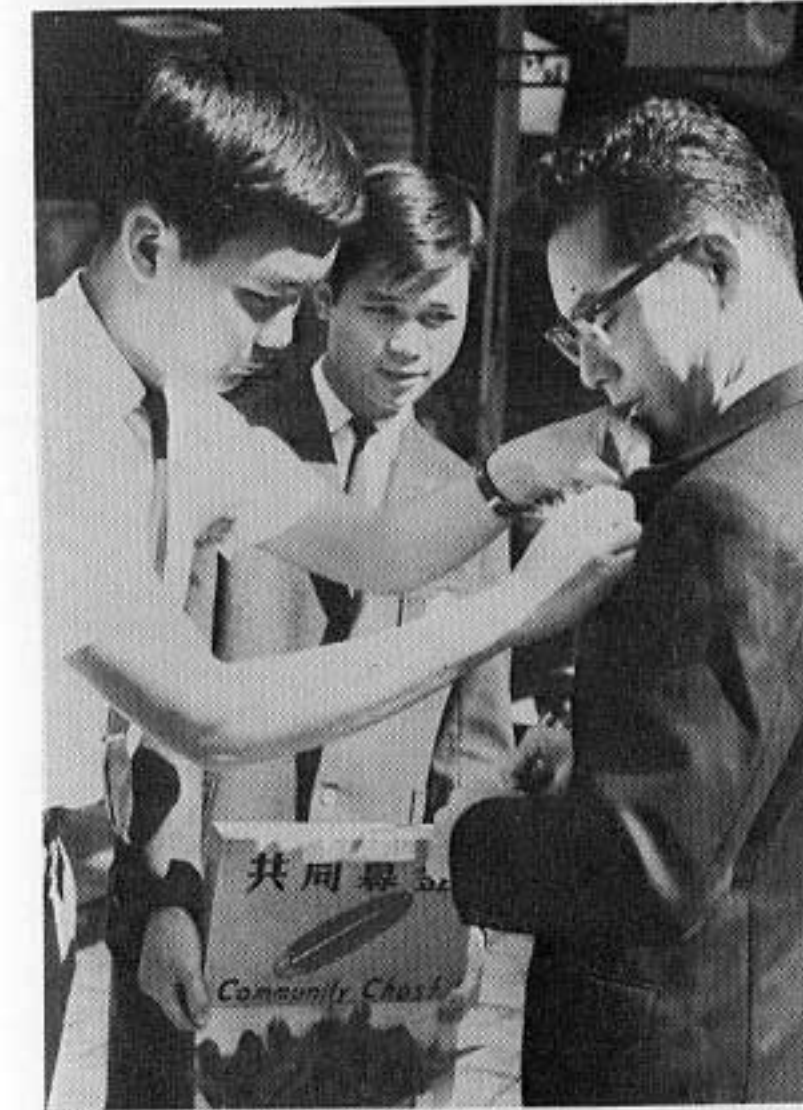

Three speakers visited the S.J.C. campus late in '68.

The first speaker was Professor M. Hashiba from Tokyo University, who commented on the problems of student demonstrations. Professor's Hashiba's background in this field is extensive; he was one of the mediators in the recent flare-ups at Tokyo University.

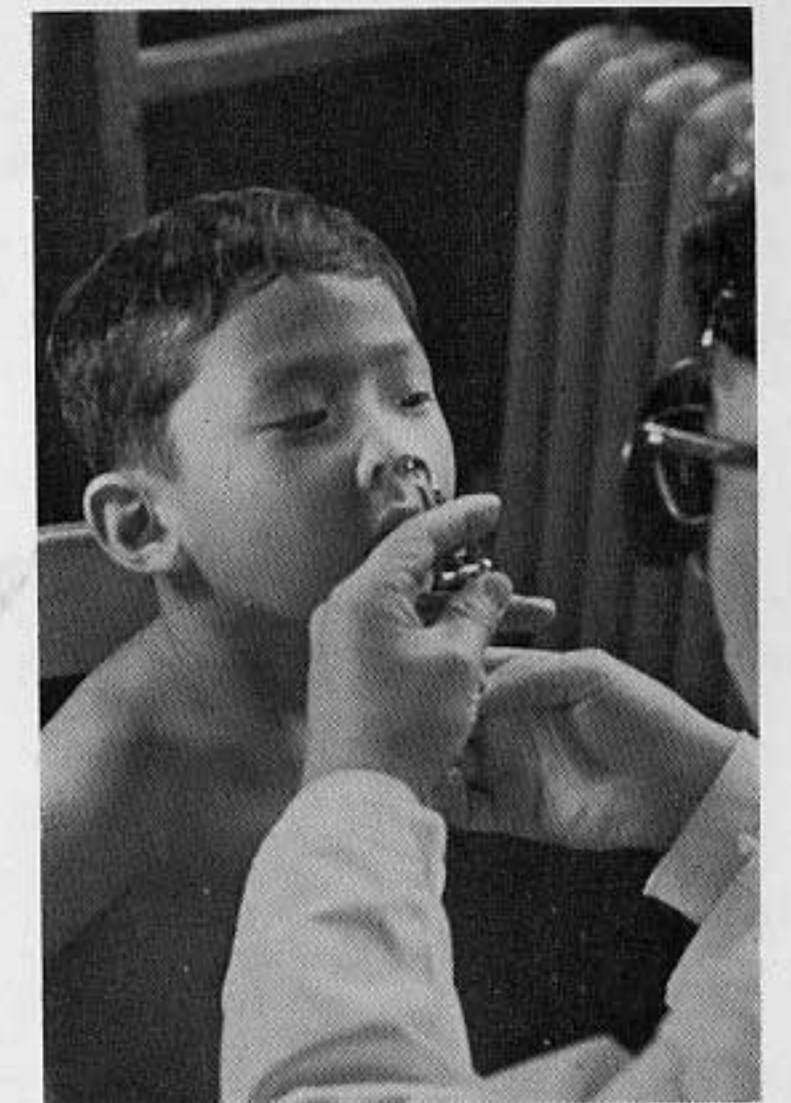

The second speaker was Mr. G. Hill of Pepperdine University, who spoke very generally on adjustment to university life in the U.S.

The final speaker of '68 was Dr. Kitson from the neighboring Bluff Hospital, who lectured on the evils of "opium, heroin, and morphine".

October '68 saw high school students out on the streets of Yokohama, selling red feathers for the Yokohama Community Chest. Prominent among student salesmen were Interact Club Members, who used this drive as a club project. Donations received amounted to over 82,000 yen to put SJC students among the top salesmen of Yokohama.

The little tykes (above and right) seem to be in dire pain. Don't be fooled; they're actually having fun at the physical check-up held annually in September. Grades 1 to 12 were examined by over ten doctors from a nearby hospital.

Socials played an important role in the school year. The Halloween Social (left) started the year off with a bang. Bands helped make the next two dances interesting (next three pictures). Senior George Koyama looks bug-eyed as his date dances with her sister (center). At the far right, Seniors look pleased at the Christmas Dance.

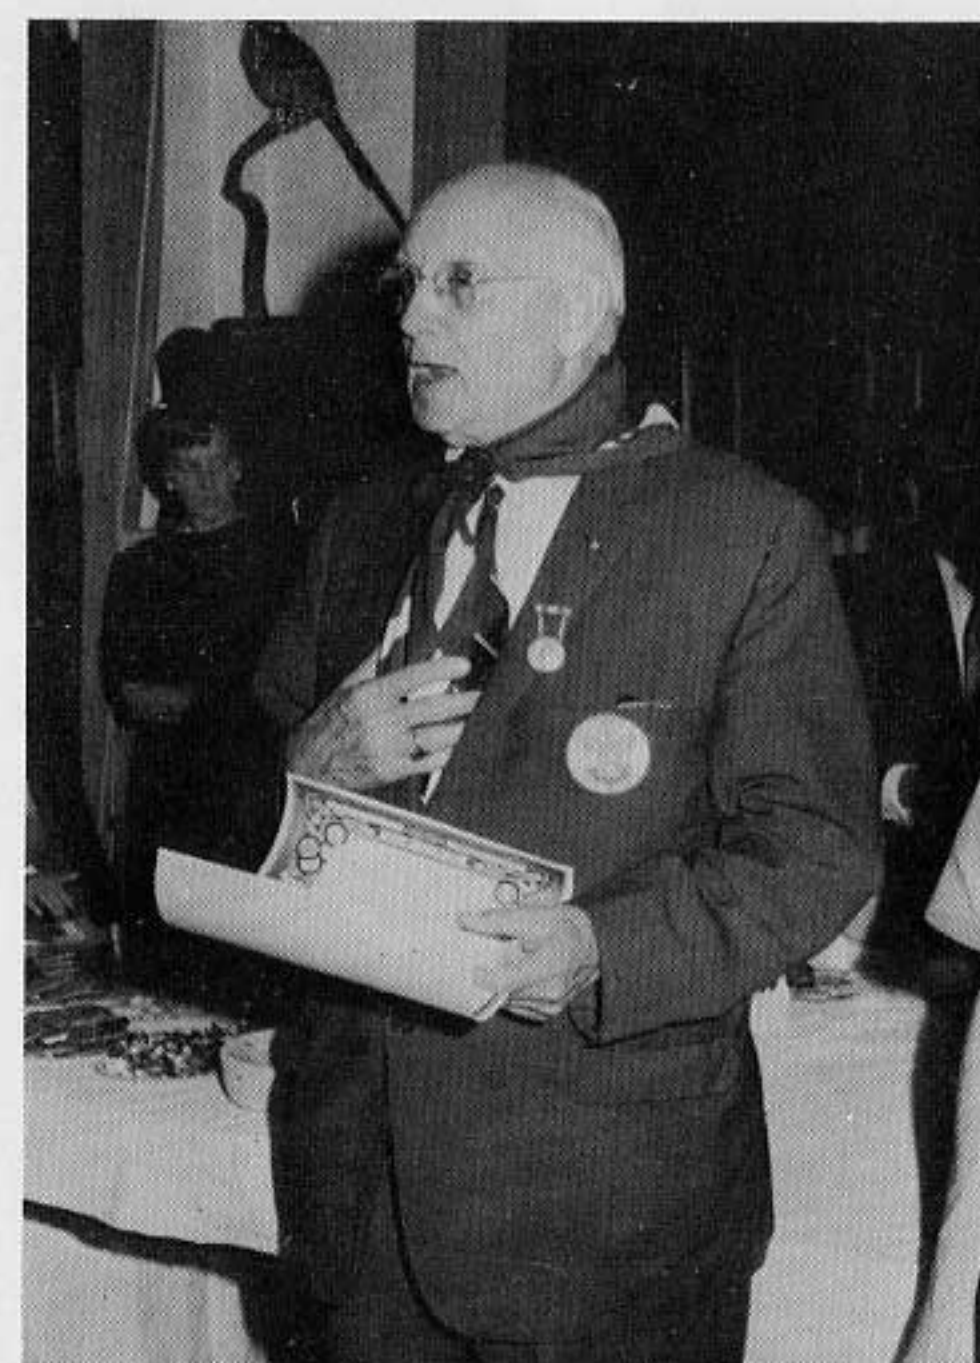

On 1 December 1968, Senior Wilbur Roadhouse represented SJC at the All-Kanto Japan-America Goodwill Speech Festival. Wilbur spoke on recent student demonstrations.

Senior E. Alexander demonstrates that the umbrella is hole-less at the School Auction in December. V. Zabuski is the skeptical on-looker.

Bro. Janning, Scout Emeritus from the U.S.A., speaks at a dinner honoring the 50th Anniversary of International Scout Troop 1 at SJC. Among guests at this November fete was also the Ambassador to Japan, His Excellency U. Alexis Johnson. (See page 96)

The morality play "Everyman" was performed before High School students by the Senior English Class. In a second run, they performed for the public in January. (See page 121)

On 20 December, the four high school classes and 7th and 8th Graders assembled in the auditorium for the annual Christmas Program.

This year the Welfare Committee, which planned the program, asked each high school class for a skit. The results are shown on the left.

In the next picture, actors of the Sophomore Class are in the midst of obliterating their "Classroom". Although they seem happy, we hope they don't do such things in reality.

The Juniors, as you see in this third picture, are "evidently" playing a scene from Romeo and Juliet, except that the characters don't fit the romantic Shakespearean play. Romeo (right) is played by Hwong Yu.

The last photo shows the Seniors in a musical skit. The supposed husband-and-wife team at left are George Koyama and Dirk Hill. The children seated and talking are Ethan Sun, Freddy Maeda, Joseph Kanda, and Satchi Row.

The skits appeared to be received with great satisfaction by the audience, but whether this was because they were so well performed or because they marked the beginning of the Christmas Vacation is still a matter of great perplexity.

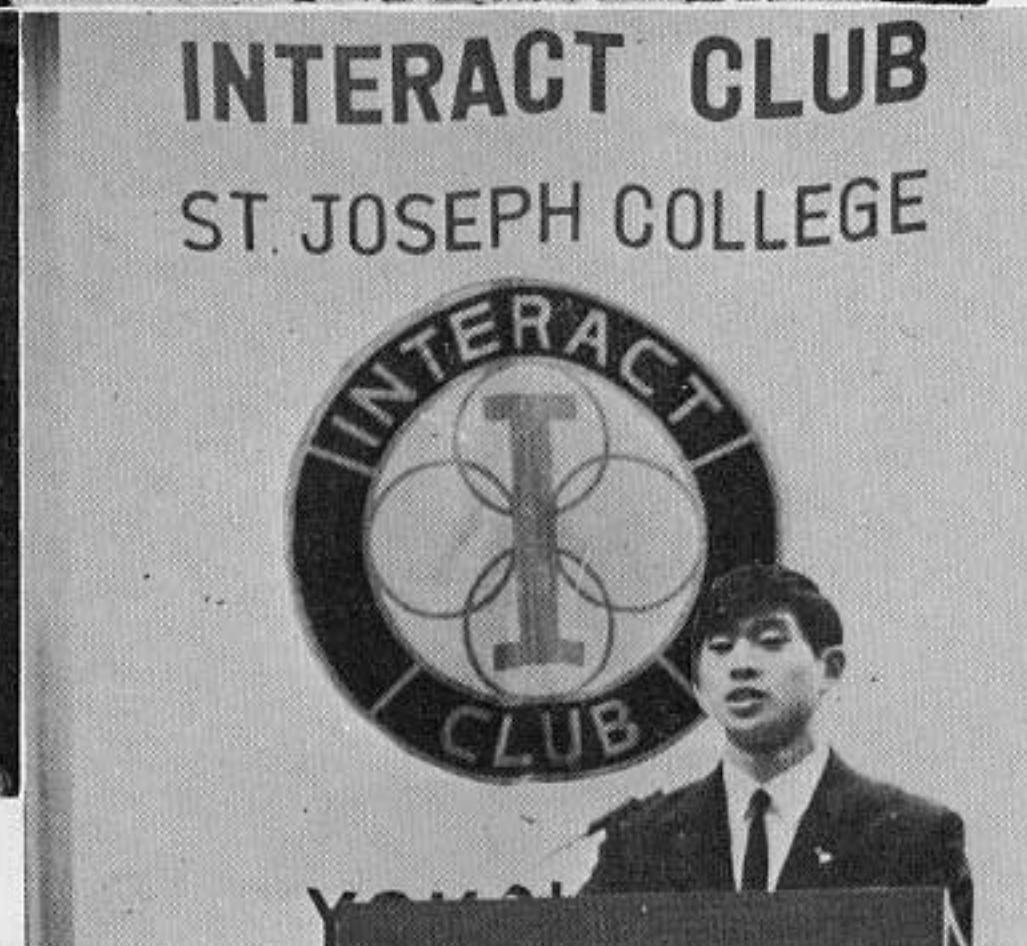

The Hillel Trophy Series proved to be disappointing again in 1969. Although student expectation was high before the soccer games, we lost the trophy for the sixth year in a row. (See pages 108-109)

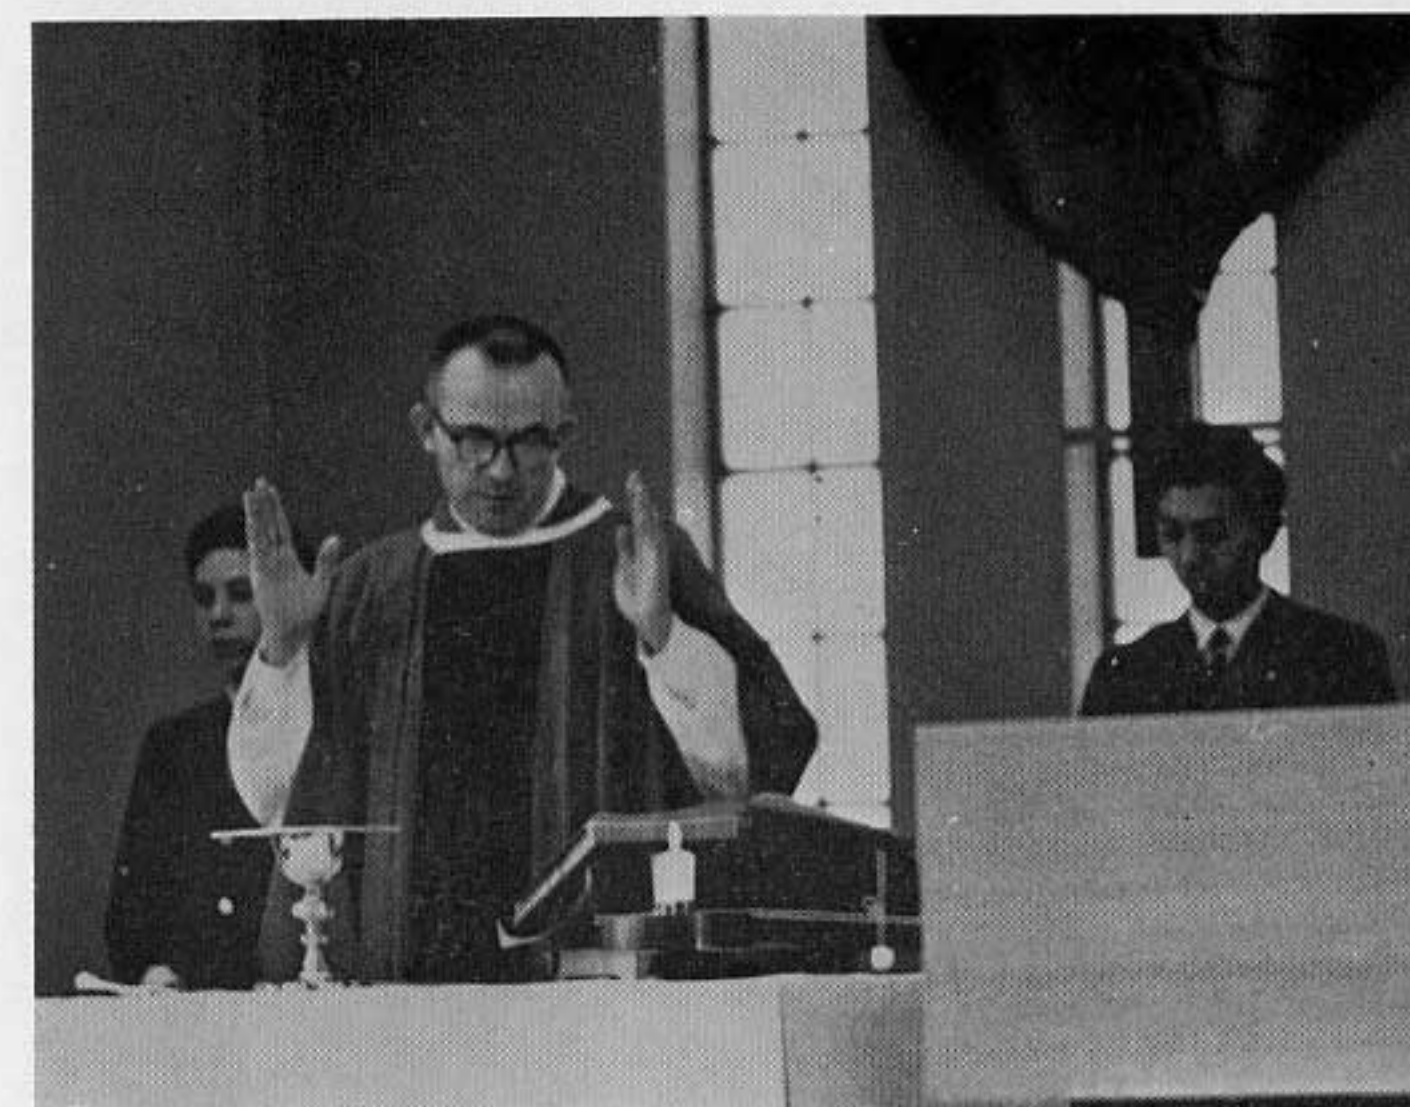

March saw the arrival of our Principal, Bro. John's, nameday. Each high school class performed at this celebration in honor of Bro. John.

March also saw the Second Interscholastic Exchange Program of the Interact Club. Students of over ten different schools came to spend the day in discussion and recreation. The top photo shows Mr. Kato and Mr. Nakamura (Rotary Advisers) relaxing with students at lunch time. The picture at the left shows one of the many different forms of recreation. The picture at the right shows President J. Nakamoto addressing the assembly. (See pages 98-99)

Fr. Dillon from the Yokohama Chapel Center spoke on Christian Faith at the Easter Retreat in April.

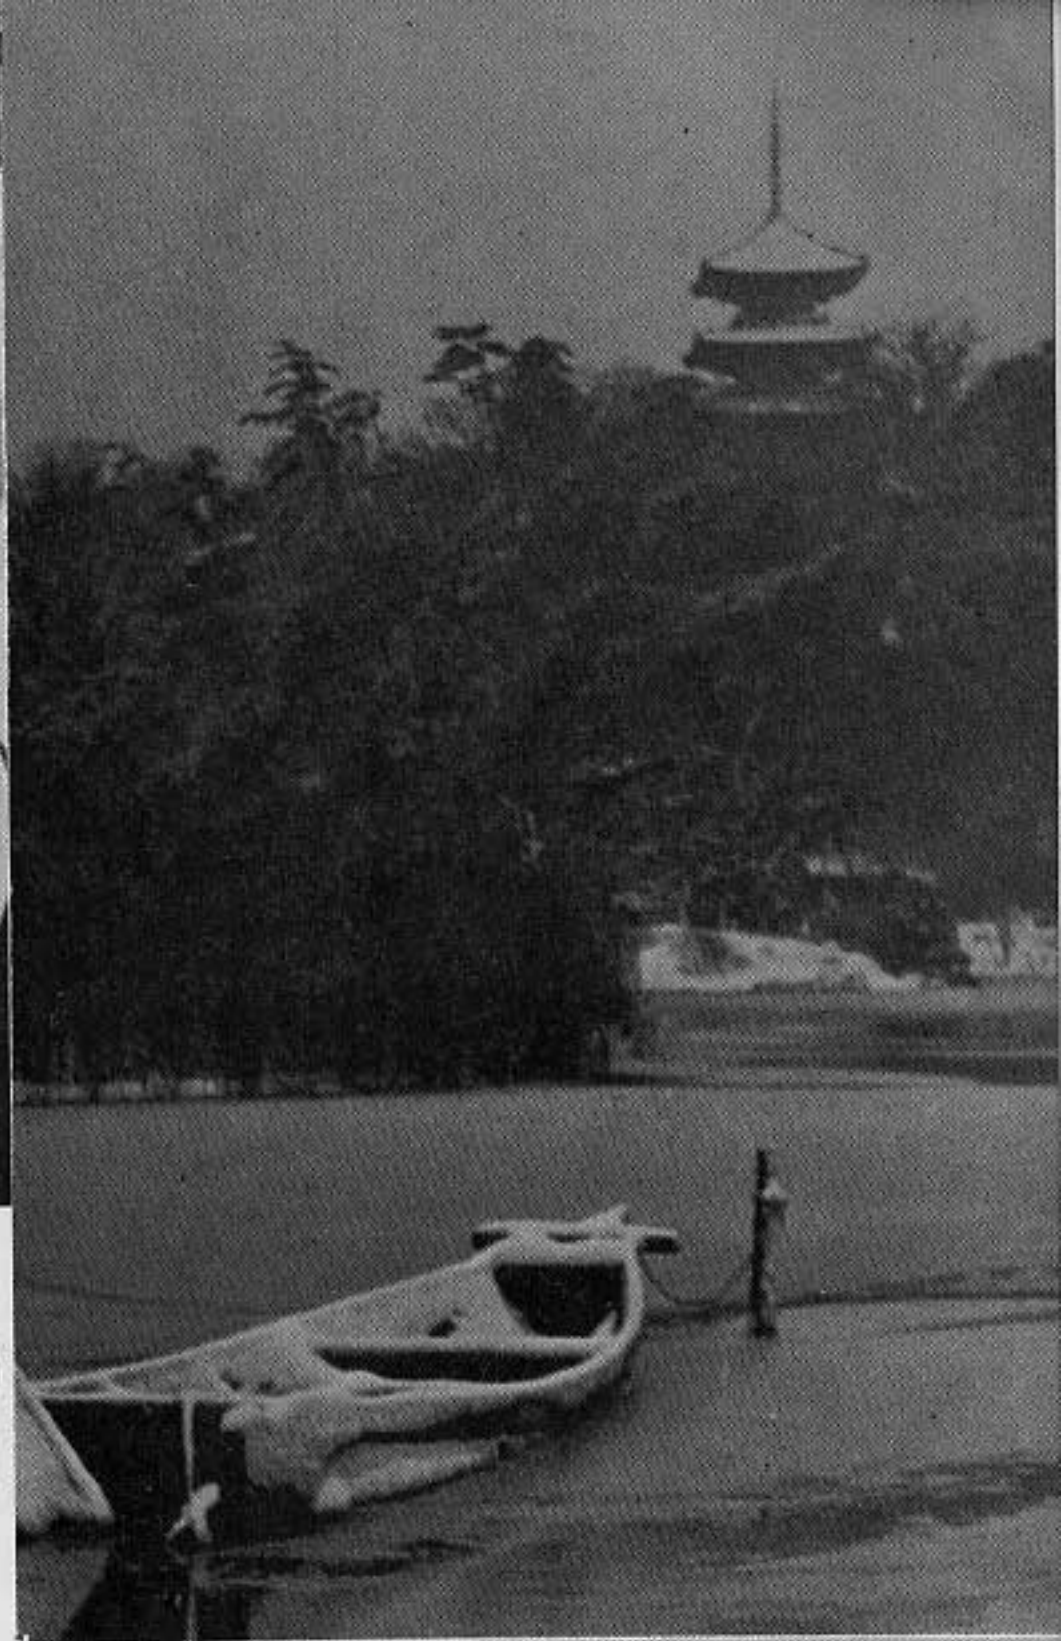

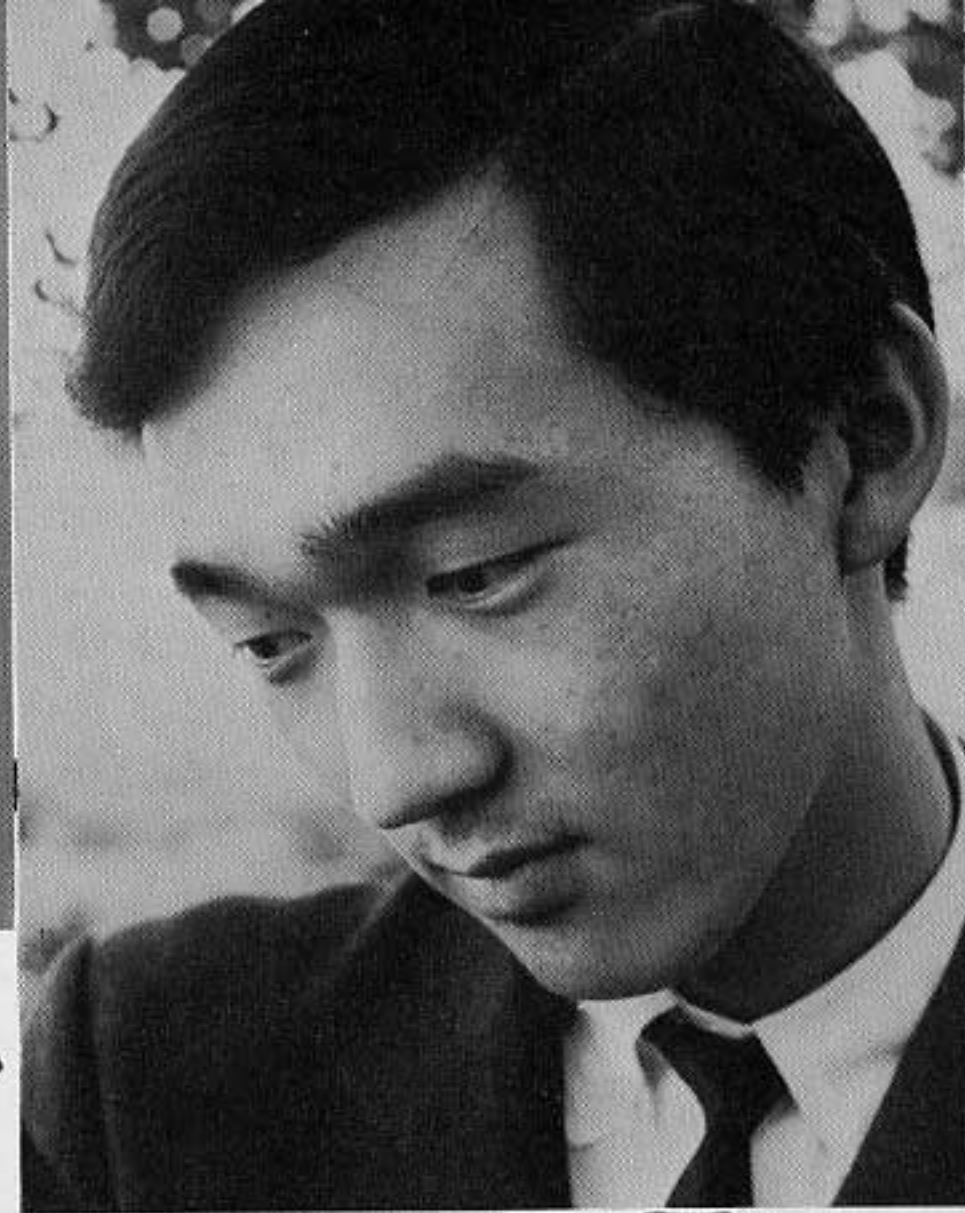

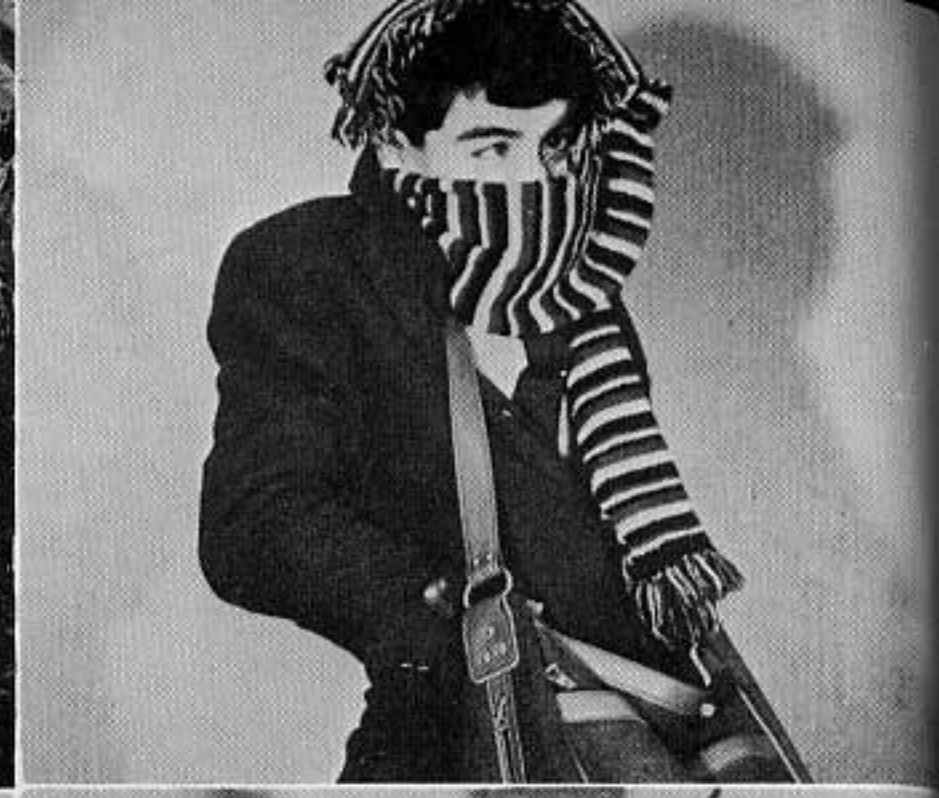

Bro. Germain Vonderscher, one of our four Brothers from Alsace, received a Decoration of the Fifth Order from the Ministry of Education. This award was for outstanding achievement in promoting Japan-Foreign relations. (See page 13)

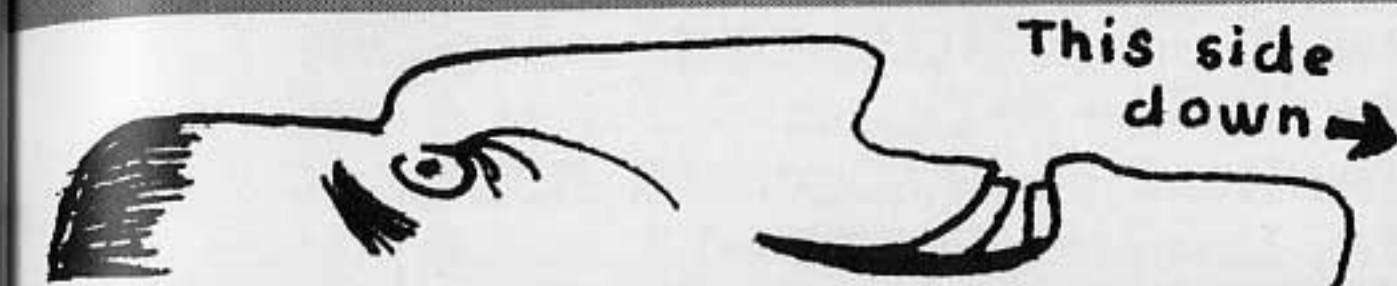

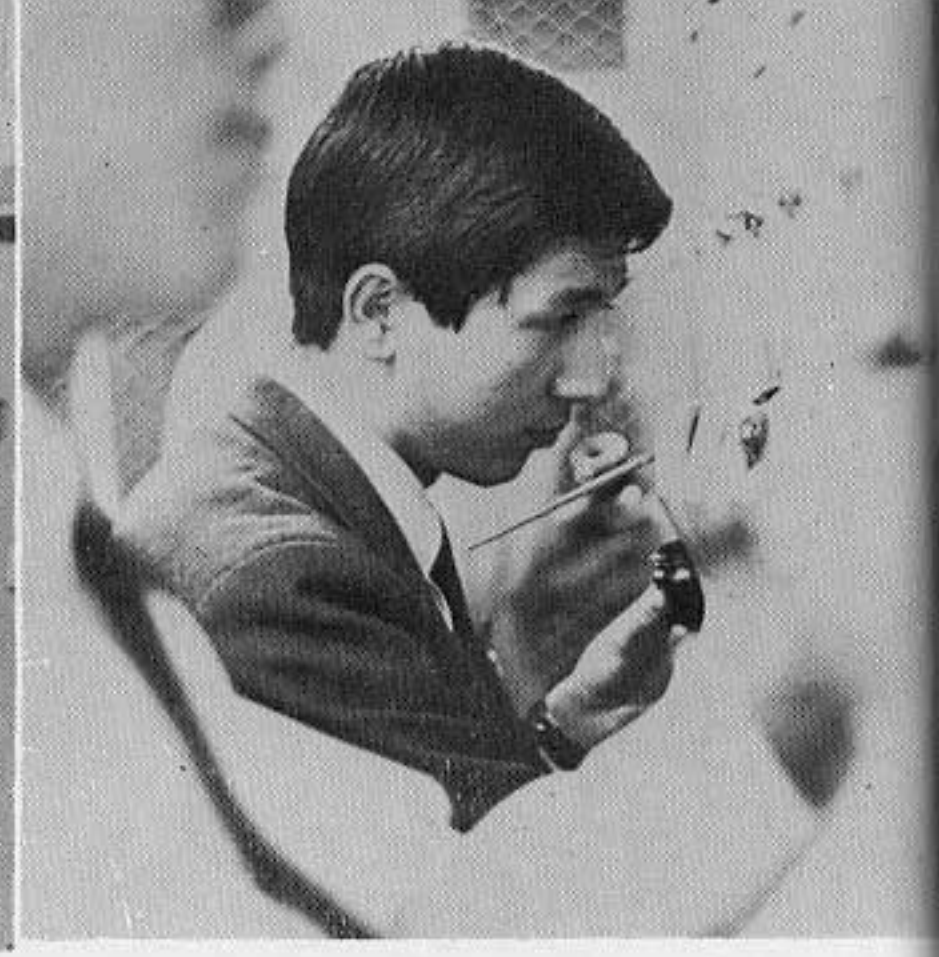

The Annual Interscholastic Speech Contest was held in March '69 among representatives of SJC, Saint Maur, and Sancta Maria.

Speakers from SJC were Senior T. Chu, Junior Y. Hwong, Senior D. Loh, and Sophomore B. Boddie. Judges (seated) included Miss Casey, Mr. Peter Mann of the University of Foreign Languages in Tokyo, and Sister Laura from Koka Gakuen.
